

Pledge Form – “Hope for Tomorrow” Capital Campaign

Historic Hope Foundation, Inc. has begun a $1,000,000 capital campaign called “Hope for Tomorrow.” The primary goal of this campaign is to raise funds to maintain the David Stone Mansion and the King Bazemore House. The roofs on both houses badly need to be replaced and interior repairs are needed as a result of the roof leaks. We also need to make repairs to the Roanoke Chowan Heritage Center.

Historic Hope no longer receives any state funds in support of these needs, and we depend on you and the generosity of others who want to participate in maintaining and improving this Bertie County historic site. Historic Hope provides educational, cultural, and recreational benefits to the public as an element of the heritage of the Roanoke-Chowan region and as an illustration and interpretation of agrarian life in eastern North Carolina. We are excited about our ability to promote our heritage through special programs such as:

- Living History Day - a program for all county 4th grade students
- Annual African American History Day Celebration
- Genealogical Conference - for exchanging information on former residents of Bertie County
- Ives Lectures - which focus on elements of the decorative arts
- ”Historic Hope – Where Three Cultures Meet” - a permanent exhibit highlighting diverse areas such as Tuscarora civilization, plantation agriculture, and African American life at the Plantation.

The Board of Directors thanks those of you who have supported the Capital Campaign in the past. We urge you to make or update your pledge by filling out and returning the form below to:
