

Historic Hope's 29th Annual

Black History Month Lectures & Lunch 10:00 AM ~ Saturday, February 25, 2023

Registration & coffee begins at 9:30 A.M.

Dr. David Ballew

Plantations, Fields and Churches: Challenges of Writing African-American History under Slavery

Dr. David Ballew is a professor of history at Chowan University in Murfreesboro, N.C. where he lives with his wife, Jurate. His teaching and research interest include African-American history and folklore and the influences of Horror fiction and movies on American popular culture.

Michelle Lanier

What Stories have been Untold or Under-told?

A folklorist, documentarian and teacher as well as N.C.'s first African-American director of the Division of State Historic Sites. Lanier has reflected on the issues that the land and its people have witnessed. She is a graduate of Spellman College and holds a graduate degree in Folklore from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Lanier has taught for the last 20 years at the Duke Center for Documentary Studies.

Both lectures are FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Lunch Buffet 12:30 - 1:30 PM ~ $15 each

Register for lunch before February 20th by calling (252) 794-3140 (if no answer leave a message) or emailing us at info@hopeplantation.org

www.historichope.org

info@hopeplantation.org

132 Hope House Road, Windsor NC 27983